

“PHEASANT SANDWICHES!

*Holy smokes!
Who'd ever believe it?”*

THIS scene is enacted every day at The Milwaukee Road station when the trans-continental Olympians roll into Aberdeen—famous as the heart of South Dakota's pheasant country. Here, each month, 20,000 service men are served pheasant sandwiches with ample trimmings.

To make Aberdeen the world's standout for a hand-out, all the good people of this area pool their efforts and resources. Among other groups The Milwaukee Road Women's Club played a key role in launching this unique canteen.

Through local clubs the women-folk of The Milwaukee Road have long been doing good all along the line. Doing good for members of The Milwaukee Road family, for themselves, for the community and, since Pearl Harbor, for men and women in uniform.

Many Milwaukee Road workers are members of Employes' Service Clubs who meet after working hours and whose varied activities in local affairs are entirely separate from those of the Women's Club. Service Clubs form closer relationship among employes; this leads to better teamwork and a broader service to many communities the railroad serves.

Many of The Milwaukee Road's 6,500 war veterans are returning to rejoin and strengthen these affiliated organizations. All this is a symbol of a family spirit that bodes well for the future of The Milwaukee Road.
